iGo(R) Announces Reduction in Workforce and Appointment of New Chief Financial Officer

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Feb. 20, 2009-- iGo (Nasdaq: IGOI), a leading provider of innovative portable power solutions, today announced that it has reduced its total headcount by approximately 20%. As part of the workforce reduction, Joan Brubacher has departed the Company and will no longer serve as Chief Financial Officer. Darryl S. Baker, formerly the Company's Vice President, Controller and Chief Accounting Officer, has been appointed to Vice President, Chief Financial Officer, and Treasurer.

The workforce reduction is expected to reduce the Company's operating expenses by approximately $350,000 per quarter. The Company expects to record a restructuring charge of approximately $400,000 in the first quarter of 2009 related to severance payments.

"The workforce reduction is a painful but necessary action in light of the recession and the resulting impact on our sales," said Michael D. Heil, Chief Executive Officer of iGo, Inc. "We would like to thank Joan Brubacher and all of the other employees for their many years of hard work and dedication to the Company and we wish them well in their future endeavors. We are fortunate to have a very qualified individual to fill the position of Chief Financial Officer. Since joining the Company more than seven years ago, Darryl Baker has been an integral member of the management team. Darryl's in-depth understanding of our financial systems, operations, and strategic plan makes him well suited to help lead the Company through this challenging time and execute on our long-term growth strategies."

Mr. Baker, 40, joined the Company in October 2001 as Controller and was appointed Vice President in May 2002. From 1997 to 2001, Mr. Baker served as corporate controller for various publicly traded and entrepreneurial companies, including SkyMall and Integrated Information Systems. Prior to 1997, Mr. Baker was an audit manager for Ernst & Young. Mr. Baker holds a bachelor's degree in Accountancy from the Marriot School of Management at Brigham Young University and is a Certified Public Accountant.

About iGo, Inc.

iGo, Inc., based in Scottsdale, Arizona, develops and markets universal chargers for portable computers and low-power devices such as mobile phones, Bluetooth® headsets, smartphones/PDAs, MP3 players, portable gaming devices, digital cameras and more. The Company's patented tip technology enables users to power and charge hundreds of brands and thousands of models of mobile devices with a single charger through the use of interchangeable power tips. iGo's brand offers a full line of chargers for AC-only, DC-only, or combination AC/DC, as well as battery-operated chargers. By using these revolutionary chargers and associated tips - which, in some products, enable users to power multiple devices simultaneously - mobile device users can save money and eliminate the extra weight and jumbled power cords associated with carrying multiple chargers.
